at the UCLA FACULTY CENTER

Using ancient Greece and military history as commentary, Professor Hanson will analyze the legal dilemmas faced by democracies when defending themselves against terrorist entities.

Victor Davis Hanson is a Martin and Illie Anderson Senior Fellow at the Hoover Institution and Professor Emeritus of Classics at the California State University at Fresno, noted historian of ancient Greece and preeminent military historian. He is author of more than 170 articles, 16 books, and recipient of many awards, including the National Humanities Medal.

The Faculty Center is on the corner of Hilgard and Westholme. Go on Hilgard to Westholme and enter the UCLA campus. Ask at the kiosk for parking directions.
