	Institution	State	Date of Decision	Stated Reason for Closing	Source	Other Background Info
1	University of Chicago	IL	September 2014	The university said that offensive comments from Xu Lin, director-general of the Hanban, led the university to close its Confucius Institute: An official "Statement on the Confucius Institute at the University of Chicago" said that "recently published comments about UChicago in an article about the director-general of Hanban are incompatible with a continued equal partnership."	https://news.uchicago.edu/article/2014/09/25/statement-confucius-institute-university-chicago	In April 2014, 108 faculty members signed a petition calling for the Confucius Institute to close. Hanban director-general Xu Lin challenged the university to maintain its Confucius Institute, and a Chinese paper, the Jiefang Daily, praised Xu for her "toughness" and crowed that "Her attitude made the other side anxious. The school quickly responded that it will continue to properly manage the Confucius Institute." https://sinosphere.blogs.nytimes.com/2014/09/26/university-of-chicagos-relations-with-confucius-institute-sour/?_r=0
2	Pennsylvania State University	PA	September 2014	Dean Susan Welch told Inside Higher Ed that "several of our goals are not consistent with those of the Office of Chinese Languages Council International, known as the Hanban, which provides support to Confucius Institutes throughout the world."	https://www.insidehighered.com/quicktakes/2014/10/01/another-confucius-institute-close	Penn State's decision came within a week of the University of Chicago's decision to close its Confucius Institute.

10	University of North Florida	FL	August 2018	The University of North Florida announced its plans to close the Confucius Institute in six months (February 2019). A statement on the university's website says, "After reviewing the classes, activities and events sponsored over the past four years and comparing them with the mission and goals of the University, it was determined that they weren't aligned."	http://www.unf.edu/publicrelations/ospreyupdate/submissions/2018-08-14_UNFs_Confucius_Institute_Closes.aspx	In February, Senator Marco Rubio sent a letter to all Confucius Institutes in Florida, urging them to close.
11	North Carolina State University	NC	November 2018	North Carolina State University announced it intends to close its Confucius Institute in June 2019, as part of a project to "restructure" its Asia programming. A statement from University Communications on the university's website says, "After June 2019, NC State will no longer offer academic and cultural programs through the Confucius Institute (CI). This transition is part of NC State's efforts to create a more comprehensive Asia strategy led by the Office of Global Engagement, of which Chinese language and culture programs will continue to play a significant role."	https://news.ncsu.edu/2018/11/nc-state-will-restructure-asia-programming-in-2019/

12	University of Michigan	MI	December 2018	James Holloway, vice provost for global engagement and interdisciplinary academic affairs, said the university would bring more of its China studies programs in-house: "This transition is driven by a desire to more broadly include the work of exploring and studying Chinese visual and performing arts within U-M's regular academic and cultural units." However, the university announced that it remains open to working with the Hanban in other ways: "Meanwhile, U-M is in communication with Hanban, exploring alternative ways to support the greater U-M community to continuously engage with Chinese artistic culture."	https://record.umich.edu/articles/u-m-end-agreement-confucius-institute-next-year
13	University of South Florida	FL	December 2018	USF cited the national security concerns that members of Congress have raised, along with falling student enrollment. Only 65 students enrolling in Confucius Institute classes in fall 2018.	https://www.tampabay.com/breaking-news/usf-shutters-controversial-confucius-institute-on-new-years-eve-20190102/	In February, Senator Marco Rubio sent a letter to all Confucius Institutes in Florida, urging them to close.

14	University of Rhode Island	RI	December 2018	A spokeswoman told WPRI 12 that the university was concerned the Confucius Institute could jeopardize federal funding to the university.	https://www.wpri.com/news/top-video/uri-ending-relationship-with-controversial-confucius-institute_20181217234023/1663688481

16	University of Massachusetts Boston	MA	January 2019	Katherine Newman, the interim chancellor at UMass Boston, declined to give a specific reason in an interview with Boston's Commonwealth Magazine, but said the university will pursue new negotiations with Renmin University of China to develop other ways to promote Chinese language and culture.	https://commonwealthmagazine.org/education/umass-boston-severs-ties-with-confucius-institute/	In March 2018, U.S. Rep. Seth Moulton (D-MA) sent letters to UMass Boston and other universities in Massachusetts, urging them to close their Confucius Institutes or avoid opening new ones.

17	University of Tennessee Knoxville	TN	January 2019	Gretchen Neisler, vice provost for international affairs, said the university will maintain a partnership with Southeast University in China but close its Confucius Institute in spring 2019 in order to make its Asia programs more flexible. "Our global efforts must be nimble; from the languages we teach to the research opportunities we pursue, we have to stay relevant and keep an eye on the future. It's easier for us to do that if we're running our own program."	https://news.utk.edu/2019/01/24/ut-transitions-strategic-focus-for-its-global-engagement-in-asia/	Tennessee State Representative Martin Daniel has repeatedly criticized the Confucius Institutes. In February 2017 he sent three Tennessee universities a letter expressing concern for China's "blatant disregard for human rights" and warning that Confucius Institutes "avoid classes that cover controversial subjects that the Chinese Government has deemed inappropriate — such as student-led demonstrations that resulted in the Tiananmen Square massacre." https://www.tennessean.com/story/news/politics/2017/02/22/tennessee-lawmaker-takes-issue-confucius-institute-and-ties-chinese-government/98246406/
